Intercession Tour/Recording 2014

We recently returned from a local tour of NY and CT for Intercession 2014 that included singing at Greenwich Academy and Christ Church among other places. A big thank you to Akila and Ita for hosting a Tigressions alumnae event in NYC. Additionally, we have been recording at Studio Crash in preparation of releasing our newest CD later this spring!

A letter from the Graduate Board Co-Presidents: Ita Ekpoudom '03 and Akila Raman-Vaseghi '04

Although it may not feel like it, spring is just around the corner and we cannot wait for it to arrive. The Tigressions have not let the brutal winter slow them down. It has been an exciting year so far for the girls with tours and getting back in the studio for the first time in four years! This January, we had the pleasure of hosting the group as one of their stops during intercession tour. We enjoyed a wonderful afternoon listening to beautiful music and getting to know them better. It also provided an opportunity for a few of us NYC alums to get together and reconnect with each other, which is always one of the best parts about being Tigression alum. In each other we have a lifelong connection that only grows stronger with time and the addition of new alumnae. And, as is always the case when you get a group of us together, we can't help but try and dust off the vocal chords and relive our youth by singing (or attempting to) alongside the girls.

Seeing them in person, the level of organization and coordination in scheduling, coupled with the high caliber of vocal performances by individual soloists and the group as a whole, one cannot help but be proud of how far Tigressions have come. This group is truly a training ground for young women to make their first foray into leadership and take on roles and responsibilities for which they are held accountable. The current group shows strong leadership and drive and we as alums can rest assured that the group's legacy is in great hands.

As Reunions approaches we encourage any alums celebrating a major reunion this year to consider booking Tigressions at one of your events. Shows are already booked but we all know you can never have too many!

Finally we want to thank the outgoing leadership. We recognize and appreciate your dedication to the group. And to our newly bid fall and spring audition Tigressions, welcome to our TG family!! We look forward to seeing you all soon. Until then, be well and in touch!
